

HERE ARE THE THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW & YOUR QUICK-LOOK CHECKLIST OF THINGS TO BRING...

THINGS TO KNOW:

- You can arrive at camp anytime from 4pm onwards on 7th July.
Please DO NOT arrive any earlier as we will still be setting up!
- Poo picking – if your horse is staying overnight, you have to poo pick your field, clear up any hay or rubbish BEFORE you leave.
- Complimentary tea, coffee and squash will be available all day from 8am.
- Bacon and/or egg rolls for breakfast
- 5pm cake and catch up!
- Instructors will include Christine Gay, Pip Blain and Nicki Bates.
- Please note, our aim is for everyone to have a lesson with each instructor throughout camp. We are unable to guarantee any specific requests.
- There will be evening entertainment – e.g. a Quiz.
- PLEASE BRING A TABLE WITH YOU IF YOU HAVE ONE!! We need these for the seating area.

HUMANS:

- Chair
- Plate, cutlery, cup and/or glass for hot and cold drinks
- Riding hat
- Body protector (compulsory when going on the XC course, and must be of the latest standard) and air jacket if you have one
- Whips/spurs as necessary
- Drinks (complimentary tea, coffee and squash provided all day, but if you want anything else for evening drinks please bring them!)
- Appropriate weather clothing (it can get cold at night and sometimes wet)
- Riding clothes, evening wear (if you want) and overnight wear.
- Sun lotion (should we get a sunny summer!)

HORSES:

- Tack (saddle, bridle, martingale/ breast plate, numnah and any pads)
- Boots
- Grooming kit
- Hay and feed for the 3 days
- Water buckets (water available onsite)
- Electric fencing, energiser and battery
- Turn out rugs/fly rugs
- Fly spray and sun cream, if necessary
- Poo picking equipment, e.g. wheelbarrow, poop scoop
